'BYE 'BYE, BYE WEEK

Week 4 Off...

Set Adrift

No opponent dared to cross swords with th' krewes this week... Ahrr, they must be fearin' the skull!

With little to add to the chartin' of th' voyage, I'll turn th' spyglass to th' future by lookin' at th' past. It so happens that our first foe did battle with our next foe...

I'll line up th' charts broadside so as to compare th' outcomes of th' two fights. Our krewes won it's first skirmish against th' Browns, whilst th' next foe lost to th' very same Browns!

Thar too be some updates to th' league ranks. Maybe the offensive line should take another week off! What say ye?

Defense

WTB?

Th' Brown Dogs barked worse than they bit on offense against both our krewe and the striped cats that lurk over th' horizon. But, th' helmsman we faced for th' Browns was off th' quarterdeck against th' cats. This could be a good thing for th' scurvy dogs, as they scored nine more points than they did against us. Even with a margin of victory being th' same, th' Browns prevailed in th' battle of th' Cats and Dogs... and they lost to our krewe...

This may be an indication of our krewe's vast superiority on defense!!!

Offense

WTB?

Thi' striped cats didn't protect thar quarterback any better than our krewe did. But, our quarterback was far more likely to make a run at thi' Browns. In fact, thi' mainstay of thi' runs came from one back, and one back only... and then it was only at the guards and tackles...

Thi' cat quarterback took care of thi' pigskin better than thi' large human being did for us when he threw. But, they lost thi' ball on a sack/fumble...
